Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, when a court imposes a sentence on a person who has committed a crime or places a person who has committed a crime on probation, the person is required to pay a crime victim and witness assistance surcharge of $60 for each misdemeanor and $85 for each felony. Most of the surcharge (part A) is allocated to fund county programs for crime victims and witnesses and to provide awards to crime victims. The rest of the surcharge (part B) is used for grants to fund services for victims of sexual assaults.

Current law also requires that the crime victim and witness assistance surcharge be imposed in certain cases in which a criminal prosecution is deferred or suspended. Specifically, if a person is charged with a crime for conduct that could also be prosecuted as a civil offense and the person agrees to pay a forfeiture as part of an agreement to have the prosecution deferred or suspended, the court must impose, in addition to the forfeiture, a crime victim and witness assistance surcharge of $60 (if the person was originally charged with a misdemeanor) or $85 (if the person was originally charged with a felony).

SENATE BILL 692

This bill revises the criteria for imposing crime victim and witness assistance surcharges in civil offense cases and changes how money collected from those surcharges is used. Under the bill, a court must impose the crime victim and witness assistance surcharge if: 1) a person is charged with one or more crimes in a complaint; 2) as a result of the complaint being amended, the person is charged with a civil offense in lieu of one of those crimes; and 3) the court finds that the person committed that civil offense. In addition, under the bill, all money collected in such cases from crime victim and witness surcharges is “part A money,” which must be used to fund county programs for crime victims and witnesses and to provide awards to crime victims.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
